EXPERIENCE

Squaw Valley offers you a team of experienced venue coordinators to help create your perfect day. Our team works with you through every step of the planning process and manages every aspect of the event to ensure a momentous occasion with seamless execution.

Squaw Valley's Executive Chef and culinary team will design an amazing menu for your special day. Our wide selection of appetizers, multi-course plated meals and family style banquet options make it easy to create the menu of your dreams.

Lodging options abound just steps from your venue. The Village at Squaw Valley offers newly renovated condominium style suites complete with full kitchens, cozy fireplaces and private balconies.

VENUES

HIGH CAMP

Ride the scenic Aerial Tram up 2,000 vertical feet over amazing valleys, creeks and granite rock formations to your destination—Squaw Valley's legendary High Camp. This one-of-a-kind venue is located at elevation 8,200 feet, nestled beneath Sierra Nevada peaks with panoramic Lake Tahoe views. The expansive outdoor deck can accommodate up to 225 guests for an outdoor ceremony followed by a reception at The Terrace room.

OLYMPIC VILLAGE LODGE

Tie the knot nestled among aspen trees in a lush garden with your reception following in the Olympic Village Lodge, one of the historic Squaw Valley 1960 Olympic venues. The garden provides an intimate setting that features a spectacular backdrop of granite peaks. The lodge, with its vaulted ceilings, exposed wooden beams and stone fireplace can be decorated to your specifications and will accommodate up to 350 guests.

OLYMPIC HOUSE

Located in the heart of The Village at Squaw Valley, this venue offers several indoor and outdoor options for both your ceremony and reception. In the summer, plan your ceremony on the lawn followed by a reception on the KT-Deck where you can celebrate and dance under the stars through the night. Those preferring an indoor setting can choose the recently remodeled and contemporary Plaza Bar.
