north lake tahoe variety

There's a reason we're an international destination

North Lake Tahoe has facilities to meet the needs of any event planner. From spacious hotel ballrooms and intimate boardrooms to off site venues unlike anywhere else in the world. Some would argue that free time is the most important part of the agenda, and North Lake Tahoe offers a thousand adventurous ways to spend it.

Summertime exploration

Brave the Truckee River rapids or the ropes courses at Granlibakken and Squaw Valley. Set out on a motorboat, paddleboard, or kayak quest. Hit hundreds of miles of scenic trails for a hiking, biking, or horseback riding adventure. Or just play a few rounds on one of 12 elite golf courses in the area. Adventure comes in all shapes and at every pace.

Ready, Set, SNOW

With an average of 400 inches a year, North Tahoe knows snow. And we really know how to help you use it to your team-building advantage. Alpine and cross-country skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing, snowmobiling, even dogsleds and sleigh rides are mainstays in the winter months. Of the area's 15 all-level resorts, 11 are in the North Shore locale.

Downhill debriefing

Did you know? Several of our downhill resorts feature meeting space and can arrange team-building activities for your group. And almost all provide complimentary shuttle service to and from the lodging properties plus group pricing on lift tickets and equipment rentals.

A culinary quest

Offering everything from hand-tossed pizza to hand-rolled sushi, American tapas to Asian Fusion, and smoked gouda scramble to chocolate mousse s'mores—North Lake Tahoe's close-to 120 eateries ensure that variety, refreshment, and relaxation are in the agenda, as well.

Explore the stores

Or the galleries, villages, historic points, or hundreds of other interesting and fun things that dot Lake Tahoe's shores. Check out Tahoe City's town center, Kings Beach and the Villages at Squaw Valley and Northstar California Resort. Or explore indoors, and find live music and comedy shows at local bars and clubs, Nevada-style gaming at Crystal Bay, and everything from card games to slot tournaments at Incline Village.

Teams who face adventure find success.

And adventuring happens to be a North Lake Tahoe specialty.

festivals

Attendees appreciate the cast of choices for after-meeting entertainment on Lake Tahoe's North Shore. They'll find music (concerts and clubs), movies (summer outdoor screenings at Tahoe City's Commons Beach Park), microbrews and more.

You can plan your event to coincide with one of many annual festivals, depending on your group's interests. Among others, the year-round calendar includes:

WinterWonderGrass (WWG). March. California Music and Brew Festival, Squaw Valley—where bluegrass artists from all over the country bring their best every year. Add California craft brew, wines, spirits, and the best local grub to the mix, and it's no wonder this festival is a favorite among locals and visitors of all ages.

Snowfest!, on and off the North Shore slopes. March. Ten days and nights packed with parades, races, parties, concerts and more.

Adventure Sports Week. June. Lake Tahoe's premier outdoor lifestyle festival. Compete in a triathlon or a trail running, mountain biking, or stand-up paddleboard racing. Explore hundreds of clinics, demos, and presentations. Or sit back and enjoy live music, parties, tours, and a whole lot more.

Summerlong Music. June-October. North Lake Tahoe's Summerlong Music series, as well as free weekly music, ranging from classical to pop, reggae and rock.

Lake Tahoe Shakespeare Festival, Sand Harbor. July-August. Six weeks of lakefront performances featuring plays by the Bard.

Concours d'Elegance and Wooden Boat Week, Homewood, CA. August. Celebrating the craftsmanship and aesthetics of classic watercraft.

Brews, Jazz and Funkfest, Village at Squaw Valley. August. Microbrew tasting and an incredible lineup of free music.

Lake Tahoe Music Festival. August. The Lake Tahoe Music Festival is home to spectacular views of Lake Tahoe accompanied by a 26-piece academy orchestra of musicians from across the United States.

Lake Tahoe Autumn Food & Wine Festival at Northstar California. Mid-September. Three days of tastings, seminars and chef's competitions woven throughout the stunning Sierra Nevada.

Spartan World Championships. September. Held in the same location as the 1960 Olympic Games, this fun event at Olympic Village pushes athletes to their limits. Runners brave elevation gains up to 9,000 feet in an action-packed, obstacle-filled adventure in terrain guaranteed to put the toughest to the test.

Big names also take the stage at the Crystal Bay Club and the Hyatt Regency Lake Tahoe for concerts throughout the year. Neon lights lead to Nevada-style gaming at both these locations, the Tahoe Biltmore and Jim Kelley's Tahoe Nugget.

An eclectic mix of friendly bars and lounges, many with live music, invites your group from one nearby resort or town to the next. From Moody's in the Truckee Hotel for jazz, to the Hyatt's Lone Eagle Grille Great Room in Incline Village for acoustic guitar, to Uncorked Wine Bar in Tahoe City for tastings, to Squaw Valley's authentically Irish Auld Dubliner... and the list goes on.
