

Fall in North Lake Tahoe

Harvest menus, peaceful retreats and outdoor adventure

North Lake Tahoe's "secret season," offers unparalleled beauty, peaceful beaches, farm-to-table harvest menus, colorful fall vistas and outdoor recreation. Visitors can try a dual-sport day by taking a leaf peeping hike or mountain bike excursion in the morning, followed by a SUP or kayak adventure in the afternoon. Fall Treasures of Tahoe allow visitors to live like a local, exposing historic estates, the Rum Trail and some high flying adventure. The annual Autumn Food & Wine Festival showcases the region's harvest with long table dinners, progressive picnics through the Toiyabe Forest and vertical wine tastings at 8,000 feet.
